Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that those gaining entry to the festival site without permission (commonly known as 'Fence Jumpers') are processed in a uniform manner that is not detrimental to the festival or its agents or customers.

Policy Statement:

Vespasian Security take the view that those entering a festival site without permission or accreditation are committing trespass and will be ejected from the site at the earliest opportunity in line with the ejection policy.

Procedures:

In order to ensure that those believed to be accessing the festival site without permission or accreditation, the following procedures must be followed:

For those seen entering the site without permission or accreditation:

Those that are seen to be entering site without permission or accreditation must be challenged by a Vespasian team member. A response team must be assigned to the issue and the individual(s) are to be processed in line with the ejection procedures. Those that are under 18 or believed to be under 18 must be escorted to welfare and supervised by a Vespasian team member(s) until they arrive at the welfare location.

For those without a valid wristband inside festival area:

Those without a valid wristband inside the festival area are to be challenged by Vespasian team members. If they have lost their accreditation they must be escorted to either production or ticket accreditation to validate their claim. If the individual(s) have falsified their claim of having lost wristbands they will be ejected in line with the ejection policy by a response team. Those that are under 18 or believed to be under 18 must be escorted to welfare and supervised by a Vespasian team member(s) until they arrive at the welfare location.

If the individual(s) refuses to go to accreditation a response team will eject in line with the ejection policy.
