

Overview and Scrutiny Action Plan 2023-24

Introduction

This action plan outlines improvement activity for BCP Council's Overview and Scrutiny function. This activity has been identified as appropriate to bring O&S practices to the level outlined in the Government's Statutory Guidance on Overview and Scrutiny in Local and Combined Authorities

The actions also address recommendations arising from the Department for Levelling Up, Housing & Communities' (DLUHC) external assurance review and Best Value Notice, issued on the 3 August as well as the Chief Executive's own internal assurance review conducted in Spring and updated in Summer 2023. The resulting Assurance Review Action Plan has been established by the Council to respond to these recommendations.

Guidance Note

This action plan follows the themes of the statutory guidance which are categorised as follows:

- Culture • Resourcing • Selecting Committee Members • Power to Access Information • Planning Work • Evidence Sessions

All relevant paragraphs of the guidance have been included within the action plan, to aid reader's understanding of why actions have been identified. Please note that where actions are similar (eg. reflecting different aspects of councillor training required) they remain split into separate actions to demonstrate how these will uphold the statutory guidance. It should be noted that for this reason the action plan is highly detailed and serves as an operational tool to progress actions as well as for reporting on progress.

Actions are grouped and action leads identified as per the coding set out in the key below. Where actions are duplicated, the update is provided against the first arising action. A RAG rating is used to show progress against actions along with a commentary, with the latest updates provided in blue text.

Culture
Scrutiny is Member Led
The prevailing organisational culture, behaviours and attitudes of an authority will largely determine whether its scrutiny function succeeds or fails. While everyone in an authority can play a role in creating an environment conducive to effective scrutiny, it is important that this is led and owned by members, given their role in setting and maintaining the culture of an authority.	1a	New Councillor and refresher training to be provided to include – O&S in BCP is Member led	Complete. Monitor the need for refresher training.	MT1

	1c	Establish calendar of meeting dates for O&S chairs for collective leadership and oversight of the effectiveness of the O&S function.	Complete	CM1
Scrutiny is understood and recognised across the organisation
Recognising scrutiny's legal and democratic legitimacy – all members and officers should recognise and appreciate the importance and legitimacy the scrutiny function is afforded by the law. It was created to act as a check and balance on the executive and is a statutory requirement for all authorities operating executive arrangements and for combined authorities.	2a	New Councillor and refresher training to be provided to include – Background and statutory powers of O&S, to raise the profile and importance of the scrutiny function within the organisation. Scrutiny draws on community insight and selects topics of community relevance
Councillors have a unique legitimacy derived from their being democratically elected. The insights that they can bring by having this close connection to local people are part of what gives scrutiny its value.	3a	New Councillor and refresher training to be provided to include – Councillors bring community insight to their scrutiny work	Complete. Monitor the need for refresher training.	MT1
	3b	Strengthen O&S work selection criteria, as set out in the constitution, to include consideration of the impact and value to the public when selecting work programme topics. Review for use in annual work programming for O&S Committees.  O&S scrutiny request forms ask councillors to outline the value to be added to BCP Council, the area or its inhabitants of a proposed scrutiny topic. Use of this form is becoming embedded by councillors and is being used as part of annual work programming. O&S work programmes now include more work balanced towards the impact on BCP residents. O&S Board has selected resident impact as a lens by which to plan and approach its work. Officers will continue to encourage selection of O&S topics that have tangible benefit to residents and monitor work programmes.	Complete, monitor long-term.	WS1
	3c	Use is made of community insight through the selection of work topics that are driven by community need, evidence sessions, use of subject experts and data providing the view of residents and community groups. O&S Board and Environment & Place O&S have now planned annual work programmes based on councillor suggestions generated by issues of significance to communities. Statutory Guidance on O&S (ID 1-53) Chief Executive's Assurance Review (ID 54-58) DLUHC Assurance Review (ID 59 – 64)		Greater use of subject experts and community insight have been included in O&S since May 2023. Examples include a subject expert on the Safety Valve programme, developer input to Local Plan discussions and regular Healthwatch contributions at HASC O&S Committee. The terms of reference of the Environment & Place O&S Committee was amended by Council in September 2023, to include additional insight on sustainability matters in the form of two non-voting member independent members. Recruitment to these positions is in process. Use of community insight and evidence could be developed further still and officers will encourage at the scoping stage of forthcoming work.

Scrutiny has a clear role and focus
Identifying a clear role and focus – authorities should take steps to ensure scrutiny has a clear role and focus within the organisation, i.e. a niche within which it can clearly demonstrate it adds value. Therefore, prioritisation is necessary to ensure the scrutiny function concentrates on delivering work that is of genuine value and relevance to the work of the wider authority – this is one of the most challenging parts of scrutiny, and a critical element to get right if it is to be recognised as a strategic function of the authority	4a	Scrutiny committees agree a clear communicable role or focus for the year when planning their work programme in order to assist in topic selection and in ensuring that stakeholders can anticipate which topics are likely to be of interest to scrutiny, and plan accordingly for engagement. This may be in the form of a 'lens' (eg. risk) through which to scrutinise topics, or a key priority or set of priorities for a committee (eg. 'budget' or 'ofsted improvement plan') HASC O&S and Children's Services O&S Committees planned work for the 2023/24 municipal year but did not agree a role or priority focus. These committees would benefit from establishing a more defined lens or communicable focus for the 2024/25 work programmes. 	4b	Committees carefully consider the type and balance of work undertaken to ensure that work aims can be met within the meeting capacity available. This will require a determined focus to undertake work in diverse ways eg. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>receiving information based reports outside of meetings,</li> <li>establishing O&amp;S rapporteurs (topic champions) to maintain oversight of an issue and report back to committee on exceptions</li> <li>reducing the level of Cabinet decision scrutiny to free up capacity for more overview work.</li> </ul> O&amp;S Committees have received targeted training and support throughout the year to assist in this aim. There has been significant progress in reducing the level of Cabinet pre-decision scrutiny across committees, which previously dominated some work programmes. Committees are planning more manageable work programmes. Three additional O&amp;S meetings were called during 23/24 to accommodate arising issues. All committees would benefit from reducing update items reported to committee, which usually generate limited substantive recommendations. Analysis of 23/24 work outputs across all committees show an overbalance of this type of work, with this taking up the majority of work for 4 out of 5 committees operating in this period. This is taking up time that could be used for other value-added scrutiny.	Autumn 2023	WM1

Managing disagreement
Effective scrutiny involves looking at issues that can be politically contentious. It is therefore inevitable that, at times, an executive will disagree with the findings or recommendations of a scrutiny committee. It is the job of both the executive and scrutiny to work together to reduce the risk of this happening, and authorities should take steps to predict, identify and act on disagreement. One way in which this can be done is via an 'executive-scrutiny protocol' which can help define the relationship between the two and mitigate any differences of opinion before they manifest themselves in unhelpful and unproductive ways. The benefit of this approach is that it provides a framework for disagreement and debate, and a way to manage it when it happens. Often, the value of such a protocol lies in the dialogue that underpins its preparation. It is important that these protocols are reviewed on a regular basis.	10	Executive members and O&S Chairs group to consider the value for BCP in preparing an executive – scrutiny protocol. O&S Chairs have discussed executive – scrutiny protocol and asked to review further information on the benefits. To be scheduled following Chairmanship elections of Summer 2024. The value of preparing an executive – scrutiny protocol to be raised through this group.	Winter 2023	C1/ CM1
Scrutiny committees do have the power to 'call in' decisions, i.e. ask the executive to reconsider them before they are implemented, but should not view it as a substitute for early involvement in the decision-making process or as a party-political tool.	11	Use of call-in be monitored and reflected within annual report to Council. Ensuring impartial advice from officers
Authorities, particularly senior officers, should ensure all officers are free to provide impartial advice to scrutiny committees. This is fundamental to effective scrutiny. Of particular importance is the role played by 'statutory officers' – the monitoring officer, the section 151 officer and the head of paid service, and where relevant the statutory scrutiny officer. particular role in ensuring that timely, relevant and high-quality advice is provided to scrutiny.
Communicating scrutiny's role and purpose to the wider authority
The scrutiny function can often lack support and recognition within an authority because there is a lack of awareness among both members and officers about the specific role it plays, which individuals are involved and its relevance to the authority's wider work. Authorities should, therefore, take steps to ensure all members and officers are made aware of the role the scrutiny committee plays in the organisation, its value and the outcomes it can deliver, the powers it has, its membership and, if appropriate, the identity of those providing officer support.	13	Officer refresher training to be provided to include – The identity of those providing officer support to O&S. Planned for Summer / Autumn 2024.	Winter 2023	OT1
Maintaining the interest of full Council in the work of the scrutiny committee
Part of communicating scrutiny's role and purpose to the wider authority should happen through the formal, public role of full Council – particularly given that scrutiny will undertake valuable work to highlight challenging issues that an authority will be facing and subjects that will be a focus of full Council's work. Authorities should therefore take steps to ensure full Council is informed of the work the scrutiny committee is doing.	14a	Report annually to Council on the work of scrutiny, and progress on actions to improve scrutiny. Annual report to be received by committees in Sep/ Oct 2024 (delayed owing to pre-election period).	Complete, repeat annually. One way in which this can be done is by reports and recommendations being submitted to full Council rather than solely to the executive. Scrutiny should decide when it would be appropriate to submit reports for wider debate in this way, taking into account the relevance of reports to full Council business, as well as full Council's capacity to consider and respond in a timely manner. Such reports would supplement the annual report to full Council on scrutiny's activities and raise awareness of ongoing work.	14b	New Councillor and refresher training to be provided to include – The appropriate route for recommendations to full Council or Cabinet	Complete. The resource an authority allocates to the scrutiny function plays a pivotal role in determining how successful that function is and therefore the value it can add to the work of the authority. Ultimately it is up to each authority to decide on the resource it provides, but every authority should recognise that creating and sustaining an effective scrutiny function requires them to allocate resources to it. When deciding on the level of resource to allocate to the scrutiny function, the factors an authority should consider include: • Scrutiny's legal powers and responsibilities; • The particular role and remit scrutiny will play in the authority; • The training requirements of scrutiny members and support officers, particularly the support needed to ask effective questions of the executive and other key partners, and make effective recommendations; • The need for ad hoc external support where expertise does not exist in the council; • Effectively-resourced scrutiny has been shown to add value to the work of authorities, improving their ability to meet the needs of local people; and • Effectively-resourced scrutiny can help policy formulation and so minimise the need for call-in of executive decisions	17	Consideration be given to the level of officer resource available to support scrutiny and that this is appropriate to ensure effective outputs that add value to the organisation – discussion with O&amp;S chairs group, with views to be passed to Corporate Management Team. Resources to support O&amp;S are stretched. The Democratic Services team provides direct officer support to the O&amp;S function. There has been no increase in officer resource to support the increase in O&amp;S meeting numbers agreed by Council in September 2023. The Democratic Services structure was designed to support the service approved by the Shadow Authority which anticipated 22 O&amp;S meetings per year with a larger Democratic Services team to support this. Since the establishment of BCP Council, the officer support available to O&amp;S has not been adequate for the level of O&amp;S meetings held by the council, which, through many changes to the O&amp;S committee structure, have predominantly been above the level anticipated by the Shadow Authority. Being clear about scrutiny's role
Scrutiny works best when it has a clear role and function. This provides focus and direction. While scrutiny has the power to look at anything which affects 'the area, or the area's inhabitants', authorities will often find it difficult to support a scrutiny function that carries out generalised oversight across the wide range of issues experienced by local people, particularly in the context of partnership working. Prioritisation is necessary, which means that there might be things that, despite being important, scrutiny will not be able to look at. Different overall roles could include having a focus on risk, the authority's finances, or on the way the authority works with its partners. Applying this focus does not mean that certain subjects are 'off limits'. Some authorities use scoring systems to evaluate and rank work programme proposals. If these are used to provoke discussion and debate, based on evidence, about what priorities should be, they can be a useful tool. Others take a looser approach. Whichever method is adopted, a committee should be able to justify how and why a decision has been taken to include certain issues and not others. Scrutiny members should accept that shortlisting can be difficult; scrutiny committees have finite resources and deciding how these are best allocated is tough. d) Via a longer-term task and finish review – the 'traditional' task and finish model – with perhaps six or seven meetings spread over a number of months – is still appropriate when scrutiny needs to dig into a complex topic in significant detail. However, the resource implications of such work, and its length, can make it unattractive for all but the most complex matters; and e) By establishing a 'standing panel' – this falls short of establishing a whole new committee but may reflect a necessity to keep a watching brief over a critical local issue, especially where members feel they need to convene regularly to carry out that oversight. Again, the resource implications of this approach means that it will be rarely used.
Evidence sessions
Evidence sessions are a key way in which scrutiny committees inform their work. They might happen at formal committee, in less formal 'task and finish' groups or at standalone sessions. Good preparation is a vital part of conducting effective evidence sessions. Members should have a clear idea of what the committee hopes to get out of each session and appreciate that success will depend on their ability to work together on the day.	47	Consider the appropriateness of conducting evidence sessions to scrutinise particular topics when planning annual work programmes. These will need proactive planning to ensure that sufficient resource can be made available to support effective sessions. Some committees invited evidence into scrutiny from additional sources during 23/24 but evidence sessions were not widely used. Initial plans are in place for a joint O&amp;S housing related inquiry day to take evidence from a variety of sources, during 24/25. Planning and conducting evidence sessions is resource intensive and support is limited to support this owing to the high volume of committee meetings planned for O&amp;S and associated core work. The approach will therefore continue to be promoted as an effective form of scrutiny to be taken up as resources allow.	Action will progress as resources allow.	WM1

How to plan
Effective planning does not necessarily involve a large number of pre-meetings, the development of complex scopes or the drafting of questioning plans. It is more often about setting overall objectives and then considering what type of questions (and the way in which they are asked) can best elicit the information the committee is seeking. This applies as much to individual agenda items as it does for longer evidence sessions – there should always be consideration in advance of what scrutiny is trying to get out of a particular evidence session.	48	New Councillor and refresher training to be provided to include – Evidence led approach to O&S, and how to conduct an effective evidence session	Complete. Chairs play a vital role in leading discussions on objective-setting and ensuring all members are aware of the specific role each will play during the evidence session.  As far as possible there should be consensus among scrutiny members about the objective of an evidence session before it starts. It is important to recognise that members have different perspectives on certain issues, and so might not share the objectives for a session that are ultimately adopted. Where this happens, the Chair will need to be aware of this divergence of views and bear it in mind when planning the evidence session.	49	O&S Chairing skills training to be delivered to include how to plan for and lead evidence sessions, establish aims and manage different objectives from committee members Chairing skills training provided in Summer 2023 induction. Effective planning should mean that at the end of a session it is relatively straightforward for the chair to draw together themes and highlight the key findings. At the end of 23/24 this had changed to a maximum level of 53% of items being within the pre-decision scrutiny category for O&amp;S Board, with all other committees at a lower level. Since the elections the administration sought to restructure Overview and Scrutiny, to establish a closer link to the Cabinet cycle for one O&amp;S Committee but keeping the other 3 committees removed from the Cabinet cycle. This was implemented in September 2023. The policy development role for O&amp;S was incorporated into training for Overview and Scrutiny committee members, to foster a wider role for Overview and Scrutiny committees, underpinned by officer encouragement. The Council reviews the Transformation programme and agrees a realistic and deliverable programme by October 2023. The Council sets up effective mechanisms for Member oversight and monitoring of the delivery of the programme by June 2023	59	O&S to consider and establish its role in this member oversight and monitoring. A mechanism for O&S oversight has been established. The O&S Board Chair and Vice Chair are members of the cross-party councillor working group now established to monitor the Transformation Programme. This provides a mechanism for O&S to maintain oversight of assurances or concerns relating to the programme with red flags able to be raised to committee by exception. When available, Cabinet reports monitoring the Transformation Programme are also received by the O&S Board.	Complete, monitor long-term.	WS1
The Council establishes a sound budget setting process and begins preparations for the 2024/25 budget as soon as possible after the local government elections and has proposals drafted for a sustainable MTFP and three-year budget by the end of September 2023	60	O&S to consider and establish its role in the budget setting process The O&S Board monitors any areas of risk and concern within the MTFP through regular reporting at committee. The 2024/25 budget was considered by the O&S Board in January 2024 with invitation to other O&S Chairs to contribute on budget matters relating to services within their committee remit.  Early plans are in place for a more active role for O&S in the budget setting process for 2025/26, with input through the year as the budget develops. This is in line with refreshed guidance on good practice from the Centre for Governance and Scrutiny. This has been discussed with O&S Chairs, relevant portfolio holders and senior officers and there is good support to this approach. This will be advanced throughout 2024/25, as permitted by resources available.	In annual work programming for O&S Committees – Autumn 2023	WS1

The Council has four scrutiny committees – Corporate and Community; Children's Services; Health and Adult Social Care, and Place. Scrutiny has focused rather heavily on pre scrutiny of Cabinet decisions rather than having a broader focus or looking at policy development. a good example of scrutiny inviting the Police and Crime Commissioner and neighbourhood watch representatives to a scrutiny committee. The Centre for Governance and Scrutiny summarise scrutiny's role as providing a space to bring critical friend challenge and support to decision making; providing a way of challenging and supporting partner organisations; bringing issues that matter to local people and the local community into decision making; and surface issues that the Council should be engaging with but which are not yet part of formal decision making. From what I have seen there is an opportunity at BCP – as there is with many other councils – to develop the scrutiny role along the lines above rather than simply to focus on pre-cabinet scrutiny. There is an opportunity with a new Council to ensure that Councillors have training and support to enable them to develop their role in overview and scrutiny. This should be built into the Member induction and ongoing training programme.
