Background

1. The Council is required to review the political balance of the Council on an annual basis and as soon as practicably possible following any changes in its membership. On 24 March 2026, Councillor Gillian Martin notified the proper officer of her decision to resign from the BCP Independents Group and to join the BCP Reform UK Group.
2. Set out in Table 1 below is the revised political balance of the Council reflecting this change based on a total of 111 committee seats.

Table1	No of Seats	% of total seats	Seat entitlement for 111 seats
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)
Liberal Democrat	28	36.84	40.89
Conservative	9	11.84	13.14
Christchurch Independents	8	10.53	11.68
Labour	8	10.53	11.68
Green	7	9.21	10.22
BCP Independents	4	5.26	5.84
Poole People	4	5.26	5.84
BCP Reform UK	3	3.95	4.38
Independents	2	2.63	2.92
Poole Engage	2	2.63	2.92
Other	1	1.32	1.46
Total	76		111

3. After allocating the proportion of seats to the political groups, any remaining unallocated seats may be allocated by council to any named councillor, although, it has been customary, where appropriate, to allocate such committee seats to those councillors who are not a member of any political group. There is one seat shown as 'Other' in the table above.
4. The following principles are contained within Section 15 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 and have been amended under the regulations to take account of the fact that not all the seats are necessarily held by members of political groups. They need to be applied in the following order and as far as practicably possible:

- (a) Not all the seats on a committee are allocated to the same political group.
- (b) Where a group has a majority of seats on the Authority it should have the majority of seats on each committee.
- (c) The third rule provides that, without being inconsistent with the first two rules, the number of seats allocated to each political group on all the ordinary committees taken together be as near as reasonably practicable proportionate to their proportion of seats as a proportion of the authority as a whole.
- (d) Finally, so far as is consistent with the above each group should be allocated seats on each committee to reflect their proportion of seats on the authority.
5. The allocation of seats other than in accordance with the above principles, requires approval without dissent.
6. The Council is asked to consider the proposed allocation of seats to political groups as detailed in Table 2 below in accordance with the above principles. The last column in the table identifies there is no variance in the allocation of seats to political groups when compared to calculations set out in Table 1, column 4.
7. Seats on committees, which are allocated to political groups, are to be filled by councillors of the respective political group in accordance with the wishes of the relevant group.

Appointment of Councillors to Committees

8. The following table (Table 3) sets out the proposed membership of the Committees and Boards as advised by the respective political groups. Where a political group has not advised of their proposed members to serve on each committee or board at the time of publication, this will be shown as a vacancy.

9. The Political Groups may at any time alter their Group's membership of Committees and Boards, but any seats otherwise allocated including to the unaligned Members must be approved by full Council. Members are asked to consider the schedule and any revised nominations submitted by the political groups.
10. The Local Government (Committees and Political Groups) Regulations 1990 makes provision, where a political group is unable to appoint or fails to appoint a member of that group to an allocated seat, for the council to 'make such appointment as they think fit'. This does not require a recalculation of political balance, and the seat may be allocated to any councillor regardless of political grouping, however, the provisions relating to substitutions would not apply to these direct appointments similarly to those seats allocated to councillors who are not a member of a political group.
11. Members will note in the table below (marked with (a)) that since the allocation of seats in October 2025, the Poole Engage Group has indicated that they are not able to appoint a member of that group to the Licensing Committee.
12. Unless the Group concerned appoints a member of their group to the vacant seat prior to the council meeting, council is asked to appoint a named member to this seat. Members will be aware that Councillor Duane Farr was appointed to this seat at the Council meeting on 10 February 2026 and it proposed that this appointment be reaffirmed. Should Council wish to nominate alternative members to the seat and there is more than one valid nomination, it will be necessary to conduct a secret ballot in accordance with the Council's procedure rules.
13. As set out in the schedule, it is proposed that the seat shown as 'Other' be allocated to Councillor Mark Howell to serve on the Licensing Committee. This appointment requires approval and is included within the remit of recommendation (e).

Summary of financial implications

15. There are no financial implications associated with this report.

Summary of legal implications

16. The Council is required to comply with the relevant legislation and regulations when considering and approving the political balance of the Council and the allocation of seats.
17. The Act and Regulations make provisions where a proposal is not as far as possible politically representative. This includes instances where a Group gives up a seat which they are entitled to hold in favour of another and distorts the political balance rules. In such an instance such a proposal can only be accepted if no member votes against them.
18. The proposals, as set out in this report, comply with the political balance principles and can be approved with a simple majority.
19. Although ordinarily the allocation of seats on committees is in accordance with the political balance of the Council, where a political group fails to appoint to a seat allocated to them, the Council may appoint another councillor to that seat. This does not need to be in accordance with the political balance provision and may be appointed regardless of any dissent.

Summary of human resources implications

20. There are no human resources implications associated with this report.

Summary of sustainability impact

21. There are no sustainability implications associated with this report.

Summary of public health implications

22. There are no public health implications associated with this report

Summary of equality implications

23. There are no equality implications associated with this report. It would be a matter for the political groups to consider any equality issues through their own appointment process.

Summary of risk assessment

24. There are no risk implications associated with this report.
