60 Matters arising from minutes

Interfaith Library event

The Committee were advised that there had been 30-40 attendees at the event, which had lasted for approximately two hours. There had been a lot of interest in the event and questions put to the representatives. A point of learning for the future: some people did not want to circulate quickly, so a method for keeping people moving around the different stalls would be beneficial. Another venue would need to be sought for any further events, as the library is currently closed for works.

There were aspirations to put on such an event in Poole and following a request, an evening event for those who work.

61 Feedback from conference

It was agreed that the date for the next conference should be considered at the next meeting of the Committee.

It was discussed that some teachers faced difficulties getting time away from school, so needed to know how the business of the conference would be relevant to their work.

It was agreed that it would be beneficial to have both a primary and secondary teacher involved with planning for the next conference. Rachel and Stuart offered to assist.

The Committee was advised that it was planned to continue to hold the conference at Merley House, as a good working relationship had been established. It was anticipated that a light touch agenda would be ready for the end of the summer term.

62 Action plan and update

Following a brief discussion about the benefits of a student SACRE being established, it was explained that Salisbury Cathedral was keen to run a conference for secondary students but needed teacher input. In response to a point that travel costs for schools was a major consideration, it was explained that there were bodies the Cathedral could apply for funding from.

63 Update on Hubs

Hub meetings would be held on 25 June – secondary schools and 16 June - primary. Further details could be obtained from the Vice Chair.

64 Holocaust Memorial Day

In honour of Holocaust Memorial Day, Parkstone Grammar School held an event for c400 pupils, where, Hana White gave a presentation about her father's art used in the Eichmann trial.

It was agreed that it would be useful to know how many schools recognised Holocaust Memorial Day. It was agreed if this was going to be asked of the schools that it was explained why SACRE was asking the schools and that it was not connected to current world issues.

An action for October 2026: send a reminder re interfaith week, explaining what it is about.
